INDIANS STAGE A SHOOTING SCRAPE

Last night after the excitement of the baseball game had died away, two Indians, loaded with burro booze, had an argument over financial conditions, and the shooting of Charlie Mike by Sam Cordts was the outcome. The bullet entered to the right of the naval, passing through the hip bone and was removed by Dr. Crane shortly after. Deputy Sheriff M. J. Kelly of Manhattan went to the gold camp and took charge of Cordts, bringing him to Tonopah and turning him over to Sheriff Thomas. It is not known whether the wound received by Indian Mike will prove fatal or not but the chances are against him as gangrene in all probability will result from the bullet passing through the hip bone.

We have complained because Europe has dumped so many undesirable on us, but we have evened up a bit by letting Bergdoll and Haywood escape to Europe.

PRESIDENT OF AUSTRIA THANKS RELIEF WORKERS

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 20. The American Relief administration recently gave out a statement received from President Hainisch of the Austrian republic in which he praises the results attained by the Hoover organization's child-feeding program. President Hainisch, according to the Relief administration statement, declares that the "American relief work has saved Austrian children from, damming, undernourishment and meant more food for adults and also has had a tendency to stabilize our nation politically."

President Hainisch wrote that "inasmuch as the American Relief administration's European Children's Fund for Austria soon will have completed the second year of its operation, this seems a fitting time to voice the profound gratitude felt by the Austrian government and the Austrian people to the people of America for their great and effective action of generosity and brotherhood."

"Assurances of health and strength for our coming generation, to which the American relief has contributed so splendidly means for Austria a greater and more successful nation."

The report also states that the intention of the Austrian officials to continue operating the school kitchens after the American operations automatically cease September 1, 1921.

PERSONALITY OF LENINE FACTOR IN RED REGIME

(By Associated Press)
RIGA, June 18. Lenine's personality and the faith that most Russian peasants and workmen have in him despite their dissatisfaction with conditions under which they are forced to live, is perhaps the one big factor that holds the Bolshevik regime in power, says Captain M. C. Cooper, of Jacksonville, Florida, who escaped from a prison camp near Moscow. Captain Cooper was flying for the Polish army when made prisoner in July, 1920.

"Lenine is still the most popular man in Russia," said Captain Cooper, "much more so than Trotsky. I found that the majority of peasants and workmen, even those in prison, believed in him. They are terrified by the Counter Revolutionary committee, which really is running things in Russia. But I believe that if the committee were abolished practically everybody in the country would be for Lenine."

This, said Captain Cooper, is not hard to understand, for Lenine's pictures have been distributed everywhere. Travelers in Russia will see two of his pictures for every one of Trotsky's.

PLACE TABLET TO MEMORY OF POE, THE POET

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, June 18. Count de Bytze, Polish artist, poet and translator, will place a bronze tablet executed by himself to the memory of Edgar Allan Poe on the American poet's grave June 25. The tablet is the gift of more than 2000 literary men and women of France, and bears the inscription: "To the memory of Edgar Allan Poe, eternally dear to the hearts of his French friends, this small tribute to his genius is dedicated."

The count, who is an enthusiastic sportsman, has been requested by several athletic clubs to present Georges Carpentier with a French flag in the event of his defeating Jack Dempsey in the heavyweight championship bout.

CAREER OF RICKARD, BOXING PROMOTER

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 20. "Boxing's greatest showman" (That is the title he holds) George "Tex" Rickard, promoter of the coming Dempsey-Carpentier bout, has earned in the staging of several bouts during the last few years receipts in the millions of dollars.

Though in contact with the boxers, he was by accident, Rickard, an attorney of whose career reads like fiction, accomplished nearly everything he set his mind on doing and has kept going along successfully, despite conditions that sometimes made the word "quilt" seem attractive.

Rickard was born in Kansas City, Missouri, January 2, 1871. His father, a millwright, moved to the Panhandle of Texas when the embryo promoter was a small boy. At the age of 12 years, thrown on his own resources, with a widowed mother, two brothers and three sisters, to support, "Tex" turned to the calling of cow-punching universal in Texas.

Then started the travels which have made this man a "citizen of the world." He met success in the cattle business, but in 1894 "hit the trail" for the Klondike. Months of hardship brought fair returns, but after a year or two in Dawson, Rickard again moved. This time he drew up in Goldfield, Nevada, at the time when the mining craze engulfed that section.

But Goldfield was not satisfied with the local activity which the miners brought to that place. The town "boosters" wanted national note and Rickard suggested a championship boxing match.

"The promotion of big enterprises with the aid of virtually no capital has been characteristic of this promoter who has tapped the gold mines of Broadway as well as of the Klondike and Nevada. From his friends he secured enough money to offer Jimmy Bitt and Terry McGovern a $20,000 guarantee for a championship bout in Goldfield, coming from an unknown, at that time, the offer was hailed by the boxers and the managers as a joke.

Rickard kept right on, however, and the managers of Joe Gans and Battling Nelson were more susceptible to the glint of $20,000 in gold pieces laid before them. The lightweight fought a memorable battle at Goldfield. The town was advertised nationally and "Tex" Rickard became a successful state promoter.

AMUSEMENTS

SENNETT FEATURE AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"A Small Town Idol," known as one of the greatest of Mack Sennett's comedy production, will provide the main attraction at the Butler today. All of Mack Sennett's well-known cast will be there, headed by the great comedian, Ben Turpin, who plays the title role—a small town idol. Poor Ben Turpin! All the woes that have ever been allotted him in a Sennett plot will seem like items of a perfect day compared with the calamity that follows him as hero of "A Small Town Idol."

Passionately and madly in love with the village belle, Phyllis Harter, Ben's troubles begin at the loss of the very first episode, which shows a crowd at the race track with Ben the jockey hero riding at short notice to a victory. His triumph is quickly turned to disaster by the machinations of the villain who, with his henchmen and fellow plotters, succeeds in damning the reputation of the small town idol so that he is forced to flee to the city. Ben returns in triumph only to find the villain exposed to his sweetheart and he, the hero, accused of murder. From all of which features the ingenuity of Mack Sennett and the skill of his players, extreme fun to the joyful clang of wedding bells.

Added to the program will be the latest Pathé News.

Tomorrow William DeMille's great production, "Midsummer Madness."

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Southern Rocky Mountain and Plateau Regions: Generally fair weather, except scattered thunder-showers, temperature normal or slightly below.

Pacific States: Generally fair weather in California and occasional showers in Oregon and Washington, temperature normal or slightly below.
